

Once Upon a Time ❖ There Were Towns

Sept. 18, 2:00 – 4:00 p.m.

Friendship Baptist Church
Fellowship Building
6090 Cochran Mill Rd
Chattahoochee Hills, GA

Once upon a time, Chattahoochee Hills was a collection of small towns serving the farming communities in Campbell County. These towns supported daily life with general stores, blacksmith shops, cotton gins, mills, ferries, doctors, schools, and churches.

The Chattahoochee Hills Historical Society is proud to invite you to our next heritage presentation honoring these towns.

Learn about Friendship Community from our resident guests who will share photographs and stories about growing up in the area.

Bring your artifacts and photos and share your own personal memories.

Light refreshments will be served.
